Bohannon-Polm Vows Recited

Miss Barbara Sue Bohannon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Bohannon, 1435 W. 223rd St., Torrance, became the bride of Lester Polm May 6 at the Torrance Church of God. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Polm of McFarland, California. White mums and stocks banked the altar when the Reverend George Broome officiated at the vow exchange. Wearing a gown of lace and tulle over taffeta fashioned ruffles accenting the back of the gown, the bride carried a bouquet of white carnations and stephanotis encircling given in marriage by her father. Her fingertip length illusion veil was caught by a pearl tiara. Matron of honor Linda Chandler, sister of the bride, wore a pink chiffon over taffeta dress and carried matching pink carnations. Bridesmaids who wore orchid chiffon over taffeta gowns and carried white carnations edged with orchid, were Mrs. Deanna Bohannon, sister-in-law of the bride; Portia and Clara Polm, sisters of the bridegroom. Eddie Polm was best man and Glen Taber, Ron Henderson and Dale Hall were ushers. Wearing a dress identical to the bridesmaids was flower girl Pamela Chandler. Riki Dodos was ring bearer. For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bohannon chose an orchid tailored dress. The mother of the bridegroom, Mrs. Polm, wore a pink suit. Following the reception which was held at the church, the newlyweds left for a short honeymoon along the California coastline. Upon their return they will be at home in Santa Paula, California. The bride is a graduate of Narbonne High School. Her groom, a graduate of McFarland High School, is serving with United States Navy at Port Hueneme.

ROYAL BEAUTIES — May Queen Jackie Hall sits with her court princesses (left to right) Barbara Fawley, Marilyn Perotti, and Patricia Lackyard. Beth Beckman, another princess, was unable to be present for the photograph. Queen Jackie will be crowned at the second annual Mother-Daughter banquet to be held by Sepulveda PTA, May 21.
